

Sippi Sue and the Cool Cat Blues (Hardback)

By Beth Greenway

Pelican Publishing Co, United States, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Jamie Tablason (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book. Greenway s paw-tapping, onomatopoeic text about a happy cat finding music in her day will appeal to cat and music lovers. - Kirkus Sippi loves that cool blues beat, and in the Delta town she calls home, the rhythms are only ever a few steps away. When she s not grooving in the juke joint with all her friends, Sippi can be found tapping her toes to the beat of the street. Follow Sippi Sue as she discovers amazing music in the mundane sounds of everyday life. The pitter-patter of rain becomes the backbeat to her own blues song, and tinkling glass bottles or the thrumming of trash cans banging together make up the melody. By the end of this tale, Sippi will have everyone singing and grooving along with her! A cast of city residents--animals and humans--all join together to take part in the cool cat blues!.
