In the aftermath, Latvia found itself in a process of transition which lasts for one decade now. When the people of Latvia were able to participate in the first partly free elections in 1989 they chose almost exclusively candidates of their main opposition movement Popular Front (LTF) to represent Latvia s interests within Moscow s Congress of the People s Deputies. Just one year later, the last elections under Soviet rule took place on the national level in Latvia. The Popular Front finished first and...
