Excerpt from The Assimilation of Pastor and People: A Sermon, Preached at the Installation of Rev. P. R. Hurd, at Romeo, Michigan, February 12, 1851 There are not a few particular truths and special applications of truth that find no direct statement in SO many terms in the Scriptures. And yet many of these, Of great importance drop upon us, as it were, through the interstices Of other truths and out of many a simple statement Of fact in god s Word, a thoughtful mind will Of ten see some great principle looking out upon us, some whole philosophy set forth in a word. Our text is an instance In which a broad principle, worthy Of a volume, is Simply suggested, dropt unawares, as It were, by the inspired writer, out Of the af?uence Of truths with which his soul was laden.
