Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Sara dreams of having a life of her own, a life of freedom and love. When her heart can take no more, she ventures out to escape the prison of Sharia Law. When her apostasy captures her father's attention, her fate lies in the hands of an American stranger, Carter Bortello. Aboard his private jet, Carter shines light onto his life, forcing her into a new world of weirdness and no regrets. The kindness and fantasy her life turns into, is almost too much for her to take in, and too much to even believe that it is actual reality. Carter takes her on a journey in the world he has built for himself, displaying his romantic determination to free her heart from its own self hindrance. With every luxury at her disposal, will this free spirited adventure harmonize with Sara's heart, or is she just another man's conquest? This book is intended for mature audiences.
