

After All Whose Life Is It Anyway?: A Socio-Biological Sketch on Euthanasia (Paperback)

By Dr Ahmed Sayeed

White Falcon Self Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Most of us fear death. When we are born means we have to die, which is inevitable and this is fact. No Politician, Philanthropist, Theist or any Juridist can dare enough to prevent it. Any way life has no meaning and purpose. Body does not hold any soul or spirit. As long as we are in the cage of religious grills we will fear that our soul will suffer after a forcible death. There is no such thing as soul or spirit. It is the Brain that feels, thinks, enjoys, suffers or for that matter all the emotions of the body. When it is switched off everything is off. That is the death and this is scientifically proven too. Moreover, when the patient desires for dying with dignity, why anybody should comes in his way as an eclipse? Further his death does not harm anybody including his near and dear except a short spell of shedding tears. That is all. After all whose life is it anyway? Economically speaking he is causing them burden free as he...
