A TREASURY OF OLD-FASHIONED CHRISTMAS STORIES Hard to believe, but here it is: Christmas in My Heart, book 9. They keep coming because so many readers like you find it inconceivable to enter another Christmas season without a new Christmas in My Heart transfusion. Oh, tis true that the now old collections are still treasured, are reread again and again, becoming in a very special way Christmas velvetene rabbits, all the dearer for their dog-eared covers and creased pages. Yet at the same time that the first eight collections are returned to, there is an innate need to expand the core collection, to greet with delight new writers with fresh approaches and, even more significant, to listen once again to writers now believed to us—each additional story by such a writer but deepens the bond, that voice that can never be stilled as long as we refuse to let it die. That is the magic of Christmas in My Heart! Stories in this book include: A Rose in Winter, The Bells Didn't Ring, Bulger's Friends, The Forgotten Friend, Like a Candle in the Window, plus...
