John Tufton Mason, at the capture of Senegal, from the French in 1755, and presented to Queen s Chapel in 1761. The old chapel bell was brought from Louisburg at the time of its capture in 1745, and was presented by the officers of the regiment which represented New Hampshire in that memorable expedition. Benjamin Franklin was one of the first proprietors of the old church, and General Washington, accompanied by his faithful secretary, Tobias Lear, who was a Portsmouth boy, attended the church in 1759, and occupied the governor s pew. This pew was raised above the rest, and the heavy wooden canopy over it bore the roval arms, while red plush curtains were festooned around it. These trappings of royalty were subsequently taken down, and in place of the lion and the unicorn...
