Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Theotokos, or the Divine Maternity At this frightful impiety, the whole assembly present was thrown into the utmost consternation. The cry of horror was simultaneously raised. The priests and the people fled precipitately from the temple of religion. The sheep left the hireling - the flock abandoned the wolf in sheep's clothing. The city of Constantinople was in fear and trembling, apprehensive of some dread visitation. The report of the outrage offered to the Virgin Mother of God was quickly noised abroad. The entire Christian world shook to its very centre. Africa, headed by St. Cyril, the apostolic Patriarch of Alexandria, burst forth with the loud cry of indignation the mountains of Asia and Europe echoed back the shout. The great Pope Celestine - who had at that very time sent Palladians to Scotland and Patrick to Ireland - assembled the Bishops of Italy at Rome and from the infallible Pontifical chair of St. Peter fulminated an anathema against the monstrous heresy and its impious abettor! Nor was this all. A general council was convoked at Ephesus. The representatives of the widely-scattered Churches were assembled together for deliberation. There in St. Mary's renowned Basilica more than two hundred venerable Bishops, headed by the legates of the apostolic Roman See - Arcadius, Projectas, and Philip - came to the unanimous resolve of pronouncing sentence of deposition against the audacious heresiarch. Then it was that the aged Patriarch of Alexandria, who was the master-spirit present, and who was likewise one of Rome's apostolic delegates, rose from his chair to wind up the proceedings of the solemn consistory. He examined the question at issue under its various bearings; he...
