By Tom G. H. Adams

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 218 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Welcome to the world of the beastly, the monstrous and the diabolical. Tom G. H. Adams has compiled six tales to disturb and unsettle you, each one written in blood dripping from his dark pen. Ever wondered what a demon thinks during its eternal existence? What about the concept of a place where suffering is several orders of magnitude greater than hell itself? A place where even children are held accountable. Can you imagine the torment Tom Adams can, and he wants to share his visions with you. Beasts, Brutes and Abominations features a story about majestic creatures roaming the earth at the time of the Great Flood, a glimpse into the life of a woman who has sex with machines and a leaf from the diary of a teenage girl whose conscience has been seared as if by a hot iron. All these and more, tied together with author's notes after every story, giving the reader an insight into his twisted inspiration. You have been given an invitation to enter these worlds of horror, written in the classic tradition...
